WHO'S WHO 1989—Namelist of Cambodian Leaders, published by the Protocol Department of the State of Cambodia's Foreign Ministry in 1989.

Notes:

a. In July 1989, the People's Republic of Kampuchea (PRK) officially became the State of Cambodia. As a result, the term "Revolutionary" has been dropped from the names of national, provincial, and district administrative organs; for example, "People's Revolutionary Committees" become "People's Committees." The words "Kampuchea" and "Kampuchean" have generally been replaced by "Cambodia" and "Cambodian" with major exceptions being Kampuchean People's Revolutionary Party (KPRP) and Kampuchean United Front for National Construction and Defense (KUFNCD).

b. In October 1989, the Kampuchean People's Revolutionary Armed Forces, KPRAF, was renamed Cambodian People's Armed Forces, CPAF.

c. In 1989, most, if not all, provisional provincial party committees became full committees and the term "Provisional" has been dropped from their names while many of their district-level counterparts still retain the provisional status.
